How To Honor God

The most important relationship in life is a relationship with God, must be the priority in your own life. Remember to show your commitment by setting aside time for prayer and Bible study, saying no to activities or opportunities that might hinder your relationship with God, and by sharing your spiritual growth with others.

Your life must be inclusive of people and not discriminating toward others. Live the command to love others as you love yourself.

If conflicts arise and tempers flare you can choose how to respond. Be an example of someone who resolves conflicts in a peaceful and loving manner. The more others see you model this behavior the more others will choose to follow.

Finally be an example of a person with enduring faith built on a firm foundation of a growing relationship with Christ. The world and its false teachings constantly tempt the people in our lives and as believers we need to be that model for them.

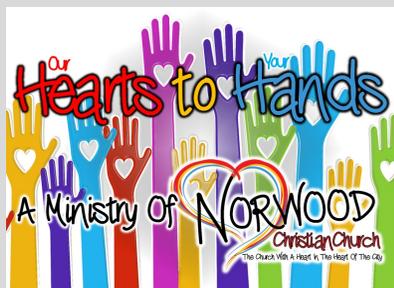

When the disciples asked Jesus how to pray, little did they know that they would be given a model for prayer that would be used for generations. In this series, popular teacher and author Albert Mohler shows that although the pattern of prayer Jesus provides is few in words, it is massive in meaning. The Lord's Prayer reflects true theology and proper doxology—a perfect guide for our own lives.
